2602 Durango Drive offers a highly functional and flexible office/warehouse opportunity in a well-established industrial area of Colorado Springs. The building is designed for efficient logistics and operations, with generous maneuvering room and excellent access around the building, providing easy circulation for delivery trucks and service vehicles to the dock-high loading doors.

The layout supports a wide range of industrial and service users, blending practical warehouse space with office functionality. With 17' clear height, dock-high loading, and strong access throughout the site, the property is well-suited for distribution, light manufacturing, service, or contractor users seeking efficient flow and ease of operations. The location provides convenient connectivity to major arterials, making it a strategic and accessible option for businesses serving the greater Colorado Springs market.
